Re: William Mayo v. John E. Wetzel, NO. 1:18-CV-0878

Dear Mr. Enerson,

I'm writing you this brief notation in retrospect to what I reported to the Magistrate Judge (Hon. Susan E. Schwab) on November 12, 2020 at the scheduled status hearing and contrary to the letter that you sent me [dated 11.17.20] regarding you awarding staff on the unit the opportunity to retaliate against me concerning how you keep continuously sending your pleading(s). I mean, you put on the certificate of service "...[you] caused to be served a true and correct copy of the foregoing document to Plaintiff via hand delivery in a sealed envelope through staff at the

(1 of 3)

Department of Corrections". (Id) However it wasn't in a envelope nor sealed upon delivery and I personally observed it being read and ~~commented~~ ^{commented} on upon delivery which I have a grievance pending review, so I'm again requesting if you can stop awarding staff the opportunity to retaliate/interfere with my pending action to avoid having to supplement the foregoing action, particularly for the following two (2) reasons: (1) you being the Attorney General you're familiar with the retaliatory antic(s) of staff in the BOC and (2) I have a criminal case that I'm attempting to re-litigate and as abovementioned you keep continuously awarding/persuading staff to start denying me access to the Lawlibrary (which it has already started) and it is ultimately interfering with my pursuit to seek my freedom, so enclosing I'm again requesting if you can stop.

P.S. I have no intent to file a reply brief in opposition to your reply brief granted its going to take a substantial amount of time for my pending grievance to take its course and having to keep nagging staff to attend the Lawlibrary is agitating.

Respectfully submitted,
W Mayo
